SHOW EFFECTS OF STORM

Big Warships Badly Battered by Heavy Seas During Recent Hurricane—People of Japan Warmly Welcome the Sea Fighters of the United States.
Admirals of the Two Fleets Exchange Visits.

Yokohama, Oct. 19.—Storm-battered, but magnificent, the American battleship fleet lies in the harbor, the entire assemblage making a display unprecedented in the history of Yokohama. Shortly after the ships came to anchor, the mist, which had shut out their coming, cleared and a light breeze carried away the smoke from the saluting guns, revealing from the shore front the lines of white American ships of war, backed by the gray of the Japanese. Scores of small craft chartered by individuals and associations darted in and out among the battleships, the American Asiatic association being among those to give the heartiest welcome. Two thousand school children sang the American national anthem.

The ships show the effect of the tremendous battering of the waves, which is described by old officers as the worst they have ever encountered. The Kearsarge, which got separated from the fleet, only picked up the others early Sunday morning, and is still undergoing repairs.

Rear Admiral Sperry said immediately after anchoring that he was glad to arrive in Japan and that he greatly appreciated the evidences of a sincere welcome, the arrangements for which appeared to be perfect. Commander John A. Dougherty, the American naval attaché at Tokio, who came here to take part in the welcome to the fleet, boarded the Connecticut and discussed the programme with the admiral.

The moment the fleet dropped anchor the admirals in formal dress hastened from the flagships of the various divisions to the flagship of the fleet, the Connecticut, which also was boarded by Japanese subordinate officers, who came to arrange details. Shortly afterward the commander-in-chief and the other admirals, accompanied by their staffs, entered a motor boat and proceeded to the flagship Mikasa of the Japanese fleet, to pay an official call upon Vice Admiral Sir Gero Jijun.

Immediately returned the call. The Japanese admirals immediately returned the call. Vice Admiral Jijun, resplendent with gold lace and magnificent decorations, was given a hearty welcome by Admiral Sperry on board of the Connecticut. After a brief visit the Japanese departed and as they went down the side, the Japanese flag was broken out at the mainmast and the guns belched forth a salute.

A short time later, Francis B. Loomis, United States commissioner to the Tokio exposition, accompanied by Mrs. Loomis, John C. O'Laughlin and Mrs. O'Laughlin, and Acting Consul General Babbitt, called upon Rear Admiral Sperry and paid their respects. They were given fifteen guns as they left the ships. In the meantime visits were exchanged between the captains of all the vessels.

The mayor and governor also called upon the admiral and later the reception committee, the spokesman of which was M. Mate, boarded the Connecticut and bade the admiral and his men welcome in behalf of the entire nation. He thanked the Americans for their evidences of friendship and regard, to which Admiral Sperry responded in a similar vein.

In the afternoon the garden party given by the mayor of Yokohama was attended by many officers and great crowds of civilians, but the weather was unfavorable and somewhat interfered with the success of the function. Everywhere about the streets the American officers and men are treated with the greatest courtesy, being saluted always by the police and Japanese soldiers.

Crowds continued to swarm the streets about the water front all day, and at nightfall magnificent illuminations lit up the entire city. Electric lights and lanterns were swinging everywhere, and at a prominent point a huge design, in which the word "Welcome" was spelled with brilliant lights, was surrounded by hundreds of American and Japanese flags. The lantern parade, in which there were many flower floats, made an inspiring spectacle, as thousands upon thousands of the little Japanese in quaint costumes and bright colors took part. All of the Japanese ships were outlined in electric lights and each carried an American flag at its mainmast. Several dinners were given in honor of the American officers. At one of these the mayor was the host and Admiral Sperry the chief guest of honor. This was followed by a grand ball given by Governor Sufa Managawa, at which 1,500 people were present.

deck, disrespect to his superior officer and intoxication, has been found guilty of the two former charges.

Rear Admiral Sperry received papers while the battleships were at Manila and has just announced his verdict. The sentence pronounced provides that Lieutenant Evans shall lose 150 numbers and shall be publicly reprimanded. The commander-in-chief adds that in his opinion the sentence is inadequate, but has approved it in order that Evans shall not entirely escape punishment.

Tries to Assassinate Pastor of a Chicago Church.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—An attempt was made to assassinate Rev. J. K. Fielding, pastor of the Corpus Christi Roman Catholic church. After twice shooting at the priest in the Sunday school hallway of the church, the would-be assassin, knocking down scores of children standing in his way, ran into the street and escaped. The shooting and the screams of the children created wild excitement in one of Chicago's fashionable residence districts.

It was in the middle of the afternoon that the culprit attracted attention. He had been seen loitering in and about the church for some time. He was observed writing upon a sheet of paper which he held against the building. Folding the paper he placed it in his pocket and his actions then became suspicious. The police believe that the writing was an explanation of his intended act and his identity which was to be found upon his body in the event of his committing suicide after killing the priest. A letter of similar purport was found in the possession of Giuseppe Alla, who killed Father Leo Heinrichs in Denver during the church services a short time ago. Aroused by the man's actions, Father Fielding approached him saying, "What are you doing here?"

"I'm praying," replied the stranger. As the priest turned his back the stranger stepped into the hallway and drew a revolver and pressed it against his intended victim. Father Fielding immediately showed fight, knocking the weapon away just in time to escape a bullet, which grazed his head and clipped a lock of hair from his temple.

At the same time the priest knocked the culprit down by a blow on the face. Hurdled scrambling to his feet, the man continued down the hallway, pushing and trampling over the children. At the bottom of the stairway he turned and fired another ineffective shot at the priest and then, still brandishing the revolver, ran into the street. A dozen children, accompanied by Father Fielding, ran in pursuit and were joined by a crowd of enraged citizens, but the man escaped.

The man is described as being about thirty years old, roughly dressed and was evidently either a Greek or an Italian.

Corpus Christi church is located at Forty-ninth street and Grand Boulevard, and includes in its membership some of the wealthiest Roman Catholics in the city.

Unknown Man Asphyxiated.

St. Paul, Oct. 19.—An unknown man was found dead in the saloon and hotel kept by J. Sacindin, Earl and West Seventh streets. The gas in the room was turned on and the transom and windows of the room were closed. The door was unlocked. It is not known whether it was a case of suicide or simply an accident.

St. Paul Physician a Suicide.

St. Paul, Oct. 19.—Dr. Marcus Tessler, a well known physician, was found dead on a couch in his office, 210 Baltimore block, by his wife. A letter found in the office indicates that he committed suicide by taking poison. He had been despondent over poor health.

Noted Russian General Dead.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 19.—Major General Orloff, aide-de-camp to the emperor and commander of the punitive expedition which crushed the Baltic insurrection in 1905-06, is dead. General Orloff employed stern measures in restoring order in the Baltic provinces and was decorated by the emperor for his efforts in this direction. Lately, according to reports, his mind had become affected.

Our Fourth Anniversary

Today is the beginning of our Fifth Business Year. It was just four years ago that we opened our store and asked for your patronage and you have given it to us most liberally.

We believed that you would support a store that would have quality first in mind, even if it did cost you more than inferior qualities, and you have given your most hearty approval.

For this unstinted support we wish to thank you and assure you that we shall endeavor to merit a continuance of your patronage in the future. We frankly confess that we could not ask for more than you have given us.

We have learned many things in these four years. We have learned your likes, your dislikes and we have also learned more of the qualities you desire. This experience will make the store even more to your liking in the future.

We shall increase our assortments, shall add new lines and in a short time, hope to have a larger store. You will find "Michael's" to continue to be "The Store," not only of Brainerd, but of all nearby cities.

REPORT OF TURKISH MOBILIZATION FALSE

Ottoman Government Does Not Anticipate War.

Constantinople, Oct. 19.—The report that the mobilization of the Turkish troops had been ordered is unfounded. Probably it arose through the fact that certain battalions of the Anatanloin reserve attached to the Saloniki and Adrianople army corps were convoked for maneuvers in the native districts and that three battalions were organized to complete it from Macedonia for police reserve in the capital, these being replaced by an even number of Redifs from Smyrna.

BULGARIA BACKS DOWN.

Probability of War Seems to Have Been Eliminated.

Paris, Oct. 19.—Bulgaria has backed down according to Naoum Pasha, the Turkish ambassador, and not only has the probability of war, which appeared imminent, been eliminated, but an understanding between Bulgaria and Turkey is in sight. The ambassador practically admitted that the two countries had been on the verge of war and explained that while his denial of the mobilization of the Turkish troops was literally true, it was equally true that mobilization had been previously ordered and then suspended.

"The Oriental crisis has been developing with such rapidity," he said, "that every hour has its importance."

It is true that my government, after warning the powers in a circular letter that Turkey would be compelled to take measures for its own protection unless Bulgarian activities ceased, without result, decided on Friday to proceed with the necessary precautionary measures, which included a plan for the mobilization and the drawing up of orders, which later were issued to the railroad lines, for the transportation of the troops. The cabinet endeavored to act with the utmost secrecy, but its plans evidently leaked out.

"In the meantime the projected measures were abandoned because we received the assurance we demanded from Bulgaria. I have not any right to say that at the present time, within forty-eight hours the situation will be modified in a way most favorable to the maintenance of peace. Already a dispatch from Sofia announces that the decree convoking the reserves has been annulled. This is the commencement and a confirmation of the assurance we demanded."

To France largely belongs the honor of opening the way for an understanding between Turkey and Bulgaria before it was too late.

NEW RAILROAD TO THE CUYUNA RANGE

Cuyuna Range Railroad Company
Filed Articles of Incorporation Saturday

FROM DEERWOOD TO DULUTH

Soo Thought to be Behind Move,
Though Adams, Freyberger and Fulton Incorporators

This morning's Duluth News-Tribune contains the following article which is of vital importance to Brainerd and Crow Wing county. While the articles of incorporation are said to be only for a line from Deerwood east, it is probable that the road would be extended to this city and other points south and west of here where good finds of iron have been made:

"Duluth is to have a new railroad. That fact is settled by the filing of articles at St. Paul late Saturday by the Cuyuna Range Railroad company, whose home is in this city, where the main officers are to be located. The incorporators are Cuyler Adams, of Deerwood, and H. B. Freyberger and H. C. Fulton of Duluth.

The articles recite that it is the intention of the company to construct a line of railroad from Deerwood, Crow Wing county, east to Duluth and Superior.

The incorporators are maintaining a most discreet silence in regard to the objects of the new company, and as far as they are concerned, its intentions are carefully packed away under a veil of mystery.

This veil, however, does not seem to have been impenetrable to the railroad men of Duluth. Half a dozen persons prominent in railroad operation, approached upon the subject yesterday, promptly pronounced it a new and important move on the part of the Soo which heralds that roads determination to have its full share of the ore business from the Cuyuna range.

According to the mining men who have followed developments on the Cuyuna since it first came into prominence, the new road means that powerful interests have become convinced that that iron bearing district's merits are no longer in doubt, and that it is soon to become a great factor in the production of ore. From this fact alone, indeed principally because of it, the news is of the very first importance to Duluth and Superior. It may mean the development of another district like the Missabe, which more than any other section has contributed to the greatness of Duluth.

That the new company is connected with the Soo there can be little doubt. Mr. Freyberger, who is handling the legal business for the new corporation, is attorney for the Soo people in Duluth, and has charge of all their legal business during the extended and costly negotiations for that road's right of way into this city. Mr. Adams is a prominent Cuyuna range land owner, indeed, he is credited with having discovered the existence of iron ore in that section. Mr. Fulton is an associate of Mr. Freyberger's.

Whether a new line will be built all the way to the head of the lakes at once is not known, but it would seem good reasoning that such will not be the case, although there is little doubt that one will ultimately be constructed. Instead it is thought by railroad men that the initial line will be a feeder for the Soo.

Vast beds of ore have recently been shown up by drills in the vicinity of Deerwood, and it is said by railroad men that it will undoubtedly be the business of the new road to divert as much of this traffic as possible to the Soo when shipping begins. In order to carry out such a program successfully docks must be built here or at Superior.

The Soo main line from Bronten to the head of the lakes passes just south of Mille Lacs lake, touching at the town of Lawrence, on the lake's southern extremity. From Deerwood to a point a short distance west of Lawrence would be the shortest route to the main line—about 40 miles.

It is considered more likely, however, that the course of the new line will be east ward from Deerwood, passing north of Mille Lacs lake and through Aitkin county to a point on the Soo near the station of Longfellow, midway between Lawrence and Moose Lake. Or if a still more easterly route should be chosen the road could strike the main line at Moose Lake, Carlton county, which would give it practically an air line from Deerwood for hauling ore to the head of the lakes.

The incorporation articles call for a charter for 999 years. The capital is $100,000 and an indebtedness allowed up to $1,000,000. The three incorporators also constitute the board of directors until the company is fully organized. All of the men connected with the new road refused to discuss the matter beyond admitting that the application had been made at St. Paul and that work would begin on the road shortly.

The company will be a competitor of the Northern Pacific road. It is expected that the letters of incorporation will be filed here today.

A Jeweler's Experience

C. R. Kluger, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed. The young couple returned on the evening train to Mildred where they will make their future home.

WAS A GOOD GAME

Brainerd Defeated the Aitkin High School Saturday Though Without One of Best Players

The Brainerd high school football team took the Aitkin highs into camp Saturday afternoon for the second time this season by a score of 17 to 6. Brainerd was handicapped by the absence of "Cool Quinn," who plays quarterback and is one of the best men on the team. Aitkin succeeded in scoring six points in the first half, while Brainerd got 11. In the second half Brainerd added six points to its score, while Aitkin had to be satisfied with nothing. The Brainerd boys have so far played three games and have won them all. They are a fast and quick team and are not afraid to go up against any team of their weight in the state.

Northeast Brainerd took a game from Southeast Brainerd on the grounds at the Lowell school Sunday by a score of 15 to 0.

ENTERTAINS STATE MANAGER

Brainerd Court of Honor Has Important Guest on Friday at Regular Meeting

Brainerd Court, No. 1033, Court of Honor, entertained its state manager, Walter M. Inman, of St. Paul, Friday evening. There was a good attendance of members present, who with their friends listened to an address by Mr. Inman. He is a forcible, brilliant, and witty speaker and held the audience, and is sure of a still larger attendance when he visits Brainerd again. He explained the various classes of new policies, the adequate rate of the Court of Honor and the numerous investments of its reserve fund that the order is making in Minnesota, now holding municipal bonds of Duluth, Owatonna, St. Cloud and Two Harbors.

The opening ceremony paraphernalia was presented to the Court by Recorder John A. Hoffbauer and the manner in which the officers put on this part of the work gained the compliments of the state manager. Mr. Inman installed the following officers, David L. Frayer acting as supreme conductor and Mrs. Isabelle Thayer as supreme chaplain:

Chancellor—W. E. Corkrey.
Vice Chancellor—Minnie Britton.
Past Chancellor—Hattie A. Weeks.
Chaplain—Mary E. Dorerty.
Recorder—John A. Hoffbauer.
Conductor—Joseph Britton, Jr.
Guard—R. L. Weeks.
Sentinel—Mamie B. Hefferin.
Director—Ida Hoffbauer.
Pianist—Mary B. Bruce.

Several candidates were initiated and given the new form, short degree work. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation by members of a handsome gold badge to Mrs. Hattie A. Weeks, the former chancellor of the court, the presentation speech being made by Chancellor W. E. Corkrey. Mrs. Weeks responded in well chosen words and thanked the members for the honor. Refreshments concluded the evening's ceremony.

This was Mr. Inman's first visit to Brainerd and he was most favorably impressed with the many natural beauties of the city and the activity shown in building operations. An automobile ride with the recorder enabled him to give a good opinion of the size of the city and its many advantages.

NEW DIGESTIVE JUICES WANTED

More Gastric Juice and no Fermentation is What Your Stomach Needs

ALL DYSPEPSIA VANISHES

Absolute Relief From All Your Stomach Troubles is Now Waiting for You

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch Gas and Eructate sour, undigested food or have a feeling of dizziness, Heartburn, Fullness, Nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is Indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents and will thoroughly cure the worst case of Dyspepsia, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from Stomach trouble or Indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases, then you will understand why Dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve a sour stomach or Indigestion in five minutes. Get a case now and eat one Triangle after your next meal. They are harmless and taste like candy, though each contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat, besides, it makes you go to the table with a hearty, healthy appetite; but, what will please you most is that you will feel that your Stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for Biliousness or Constipation.

his city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach prescription, too, if you ever have Indigestion or Gastritis or any other Stomach misery, and eat just one Triangle of Diapepsin.

Chicken Pie Supper and Fair

The Ladies Aid Society and friends of the Methodist Episcopal church will serve their annual chicken pie supper at Walker's hall tomorrow evening. The ladies will make the occasion their usual standard of serving a hot palatable meal. Supper will be served from 5 until 8 and there will be an abundance on hand with ready waiters to serve their patrons with facility. The price of the supper will be 25 cents.

In connection with the supper the ladies will hold their annual sale of fancy and useful articles of which they have a large collection on hand.

Where the young Man Comes into His Own

A long-deferred attention to his special requirements, as evidenced in our new Fall Modes in Suits and Overcoats.

THE YOUNG MEN have never been given a fair shake in the clothes question, and it hasn't been the fault of the retailer either. In recent seasons the demand for good clothes has been insistent;—many makers have met the demand for style alone; but not for workmanship. Now come the SINCERITY people with special styles for young men and the splendid workmanship that gives character and permanence to their product. We are exclusive agents and have a splendid line of young men's suits and overcoats for your inspection. You will appreciate this when you see them in the window or come in and try them on—we cannot tell you about them. They are the smartest styles we have ever seen—snappy, perfect fitting.

WE SPECIALIZE in these goods at $20.00 to $25.00 and offer you the greatest values ever made at the price. Suits in all the best models in—greens, browns, tans, grays, olives—fabrics especially beautiful this year.

Overcoats, Topcoats, Raincoats and Auto Coats. There are more colors than usual in overcoat fabrics, priced

The city convention of the Public Ownership party, which was held Saturday evening placed men in nomination for the three elective city offices, as follows:

Mayor—A. Ousdahl.
Treasurer—Ed. Evanson.
Assessor—Wm. Tudor.
A. W. Falster in the Second Ward and S. W. Quinn in the Fifth withdrew from the ticket as candidates for aldermen and it was decided not to fill the vacancies and there will be but one candidate for that position in each of the First, Second and Fifth Wards.

A LUSTY YOUNGSTER

The H. F. Michael Co. Celebrates the Fourth Anniversary of the Opening of Store

Four years ago today the H. F. Michael Co. opened its store in this city for business. There were those who freely predicted at the time that there was not room for another dry goods store in Brainerd, but time has proven otherwise. By a wise and broad policy of consistent and persistent advertising, backed up by honest fulfillment of every bargain advertized, has placed this store in the front rank in its line, not only in Brainerd, but in any city of its size in the northwest. That it will continue to grow and thrive none who know the energy of H. F. Michael can doubt.

Interrupts Political Speaker

A well dressed woman interrupted a political speaker recently by continually coughing. NEW RAILROAD TO THE CUYUNA RANGE

Cuyuna Range Railroad Company
Filed Articles of Incorporation Saturday

FROM DEERWOOD TO DULUTH

Soo Thought to be Behind Move, Though Adams, Freyberger and Fulton Incorporators

This morning's Duluth News-Tribune contains the following article which is of vital importance to Brainerd and Crow Wing county. While the articles of incorporation are said to be only for a line from Deerwood east, it is probable that the road would be extended to this city and other points south and west of here where good finds of iron have been made:

"Duluth is to have a new railroad. That fact is settled by the filing of articles at St. Paul late Saturday by the Cuyuna Range Railroad company, whose home is in this city, where the main officers are to be located. The incorporators are Cuyler Adams, of Deerwood, and H. B. Freyberger and H. C. Fulton of Duluth.

The articles recite that it is the intention of the company to construct a line of railroad from Deerwood, Crow Wing county, east to Duluth and Superior.

The incorporators are maintaining a most discreet silence in regard to the objects of the new company, and as far as they are concerned, its intentions are carefully packed away under a veil of mystery.

This veil, however, does not seem to have been impenetrable to the railroad men of Duluth. Half a dozen persons prominent in railroad operation, approached upon the subject yesterday, promptly pronounced it a new and important move on the part of the Soo which heralds that roads determination to have its full share of the ore business from the Cuyuna range.

According to the mining men who have followed developments on the Cuyuna since it first came into prominence, the new road means that powerful interests have become convinced that that iron bearing district's merits are no longer in doubt, and that it is soon to become a great factor in the production of ore. From this fact alone, indeed principally because of it, the news is of the very first importance to Duluth and Superior. It may mean the development of another district like the Missabe, which more than any other section has contributed to the greatness of Duluth.

That the new company is connected with the Soo there can be little doubt. Mr. Freyberger, who is handling the legal business for the new corporation, is attorney for the Soo people in Duluth, and has charge of all their legal business during the extended and costly negotiations for that road's right of way into this city. Mr. Adams is a prominent Cuyuna range land owner.

indeed, he is credited with having discovered the existence of iron ore in that section. Mr. Fulton is an associate of Mr. Freyberger's.

Whether a new line will be built all the way to the head of the lakes at once is not known, but it would seem good reasoning that such will not be the case, although there is little doubt that one will ultimately be constructed. Instead it is thought by railroad men that the initial line will be a feeder for the Soo.

Vast beds of ore have recently been shown up by drills in the vicinity of Deerwood, and it is said by railroad men that it will undoubtedly be the business of the new road to divert as much of this traffic as possible to the Soo when shipping begins. In order to carry out such a program successfully docks must be built here or at Superior.

The Soo main line from Brooten to the head of the lakes passes just south of Mille Lacs lake, touching at the town of Lawrence, on the lake's southern extremity. From Deerwood to a point a short distance west of Lawrence would be the shortest route to the main line—about 40 miles.

It is considered more likely, however, that the course of the new line will be east ward from Deerwood, passing north of Mille Lacs lake and through Aitkin county to a point on the Soo near the station of Longfellow, midway between Lawrence and Moose Lake. Or if a still more easterly route should be chosen the road could strike the main line at Moose Lake, Carlton county, which would give it practically an air line from Deerwood for hauling ore to the head of the lakes.

The incorporation articles call for a charter for 999 years. The capital is $100,000 and an indebtedness allowed up to $1,000,000. The three incorporators also constitute the board of directors until the company is fully organized. All of the men connected with the new road refused to discuss the matter beyond admitting that the application had been made at St. Paul and that work would begin on the road shortly.

The company will be a competitor of the Northern Pacific road. It is expected that the letters of incorporation will be filed here today.

A Jeweler's Experience
C. R. Kluger, the jeweler, 1060 Virginia Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed. Anderson-Heninger
Albion L. Anderson and Verna G. Heninger, both of Mildred, were quietly united in the bonds of matrimony on Saturday afternoon at the Methodist parsonage. Rev. Charles Fox Davis was the officiating clergyman, the ceremony being witnessed by but a few friends of the contracting parties. Miss Emma Thompson assisted the bride and Grover Heninger was best man. The young couple returned on the evening train to Mildred where they will make their future home.

WAS A GOOD GAME
Brainerd Defeated the Aitkin High School Saturday Though Without One of Best Players

The Brainerd high school football team took the Aitkin highs into camp Saturday afternoon for the second time this season by a score of 17 to 6. Brainerd was handicapped by the absence of "Cool Quinn," who plays quarterback and is one of the best men on the team. Aitkin succeeded in scoring six points in the first half, while Brainerd got 11. In the second half Brainerd added six points to its score, while Aitkin had to be satisfied with nothing. The Brainerd boys have so far played three games and have won them all. They are a fast and quick team and are not afraid to go up against any team of their weight in the state.

Northeast Brainerd took a game from Southeast Brainerd on the grounds at the Lowell school Sunday by a score of 15 to 0.

ENTERTAINS STATE MANAGER

Brainerd Court of Honor Has Important Guest on Friday at Regular Meeting

Brainerd Court, No. 1033, Court of Honor, entertained its state manager, Walter M. Inman, of St. Paul, Friday evening. There was a good attendance of members present, who with their friends listened to an address by Mr. Inman. He is a forcible, brilliant, and witty speaker and held the audience, and is sure of a still larger attendance when he visits Brainerd again. He explained the various classes of new policies, the adequate rate of the Court of Honor and the numerous investments of its reserve fund that the order is making in Minnesota, now holding municipal bonds of Duluth, Owatonna, St. Cloud and Two Harbors.

The opening ceremony paraphernalia was presented to the Court by Recorder John A. Hoffbauer and the manner in which the officers put on this part of the work gained the compliments of the state manager. Mr. Inman installed the following officers, David L. Frayer acting as supreme conductor and Mrs. Isabelle Thayer as supreme chaplain:

Chancellor—W. E. Corkrey.
Vice Chancellor—Minnie Britton.
Past Chancellor—Hattie A. Weeks.
Chaplain—Mary E. Dorerty.
Recorder—John A. Hoffbauer.
Conductor—Joseph Britton, Jr.
Guard—R. L. Weeks.
Sentinel—Mamie B. Hefferin.
Director—Ida Hoffbauer.
Pianist—Mary B. Bruce.

Several candidates were initiated and given the new form, short degree work. A pleasant feature of the evening was the presentation by members of a handsome gold badge to Mrs. Hattie A. Weeks, the former chancellor of the court, the presentation speech being made by Chancellor W. E. Corkrey. Mrs. Weeks responded in well chosen words and thanked the members for the honor. Refreshments concluded the evening's ceremony.

This was Mr. Inman's first visit to Brainerd and he was most favorably impressed with the many natural beauties of the city and the activity shown in building operations. An automobile ride with the recorder enabled him to give a good opinion of the size of the city and its many advantages.

NEW DIGESTIVE JUICES WANTED

More Gastric Juice and no Fermentation is What Your Stomach Needs

ALL DYSPEPSIA VANISHES

Absolute Relief From All Your Stomach Troubles is Now Waiting for You

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch Gas and Eructate sour, undigested food or have a feeling of dizziness, Heartburn, Fullness, Nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is Indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents and will thoroughly cure the worst case of Dyspepsia, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from Stomach trouble or Indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these 50-cent cases, then you will understand why Dyspeptic trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve a sour stomach or Indigestion in five minutes. Get a case now and eat one Triangle after your next meal. They are harmless and taste like candy, though each contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat, besides, it makes you go to the table with a hearty, healthy appetite; but, what will please you most is that you will feel that your Stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for Biliousness or Constipation.

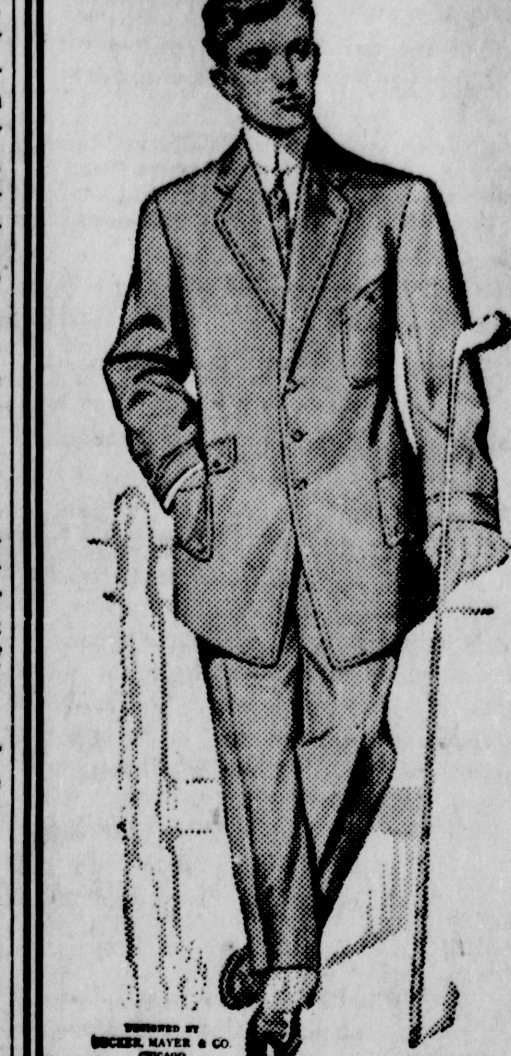

his city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach prescription, too, if you ever have Indigestion or Gastritis or any other Stomach misery, and eat just one Triangle of Diapepsin.

Chicken Pie Supper and Fair

The Ladies Aid Society and friends of the Methodist Episcopal church will serve their annual chicken pie supper at Walker's hall tomorrow evening. The ladies will make the occasion their usual standard of serving a hot palatable meal. Supper will be served from 5 until 8 and there will be an abundance on hand with ready waiters to serve their patrons with facility. The price of the supper will be 25 cents.

In connection with the supper the ladies will hold their annual sale of fancy and useful articles of which they have a large collection on hand.

The H. F. Michael Co. Celebrates the Fourth Anniversary of the Opening of Store

Four years ago today the H. F. Michael Co. opened its store in this city for business. There were those who freely predicted at the time that there was not room for another dry goods store in Brainerd, but time has proven otherwise. By a wise and broad policy of consistent and persistent advertising, backed up by honest fulfillment of every bargain advertized, has placed this store in the front rank in its line, not only in Brainerd, but in any city of its size in the northwest. That it will continue to grow and thrive none who know the energy of H. F. Michael can doubt.

Interrupts Political Speaker

A well dressed woman interrupted a political speaker recently by continually coughing. Bryan and the Gold Democrats.
While here and there one may observe a Gold Democrat slyly trying to crawl under the Democratic tent, the great majority of those who marched out in 1896 rather than support the dishonest policies of Bryan show no disposition to return. They know that to recognize his leadership now after rejecting it then would be an act of self-sulfication. They know also that Mr. Bryan's feeling toward them has not changed in the estimation of a hair since he said in the course of a speech in Lansing, Mich., Oct. 16, 1896:

"While I do not want to prevent Gold Democrats from leaving the party, we do want them to take their baggage with them and not expect to come back. We want them to understand that it is going to be easier for them to stay in the party than to come back after they have stained their hands in the sins of plutocracy."

If any Democrat who in 1896 or 1900 stained his hands in the sins of plutocracy to the extent of voting against Bryanism and a dishonest dollar imagines that he will be welcomed back into the party fold this year with joyous exclamations and a feast of veal, he is deceiving himself most grievously. If he returns at all, it must be as a penitent ready to serve as a hewer of wood and a drawer of water. It is he that must recant and apologize. Mr. Bryan is unchanged. He has never forgiven the Democrats who deserted the black flag of repudiation twelve years ago, and if his own words mean anything he never will forgive them.

The Gold Democrats who left their party did so rather than compromise with conscience. Mr. Bryan was indignant that they should allow any such consideration to draw them away. They have remained away because they could return only by compromising with their self-respect, and he is amazed that a little thing like that should keep them beyond the party lines.

The revolt of the sound money Democrats against Bryanism and dishonor in 1896 was one of the most wholesome events that ever happened in our political life. It not only affirmed the principle that party ties are not binding in controversies involving the national honor, but it set an example of high minded, independent citizenship which has elevated and strengthened our standards of political morals. The great body of patriotic citizens who joined in that uprising have never expressed regret for the course they took. On the contrary, they are proud of it, and they stand this year exactly where they did in 1896 and 1900. If Mr. Bryan dreams that they will grovel at his feet and beg for readmission to the party he betrays, he is merely mistaken again, as usual.

Worse Than Lies.

The more Bryan's speeches and the Democratic platform are examined the more they appear in their real light as attempts to impose on the public by statements of fact that are worse than lies because deliberately distorted to convey an utterly false impression. For instance, the Denver platform says that "during the past year 23,784 officeholders were added, costing $16,156,000."

Of course the impression intended to be conveyed is that the Republican national administration had during the past year squandered over $16,000,000 of the public money in providing soft jobs for 23,784 party favorites who could be found holding down upholstered chairs while they waited for their salaries to be handed to them on a silver tray. Of course the Conners-Murphy delegates were shocked as they thought of the sinecures that were escaping them and more or less silently registered vows that they would be on some of those jobs by next summer.

What are the facts?
The increase in the number of offices was less than 16,000, and of the "officeholders" 6,000 were seamen in the navy, at $36.60 per month, and 7,980 were postal employees, at salaries ranging from $100 downward. Salaries and wages for the new "offices" amounted to $11,716,690 instead of $16,156,000.

The gallant seamen of our fleet and postal employees working for $100 a month and less are the "officeholders" held up in the Denver platform and by Bryan in speech after speech in illustration of Republican extravagance and waste!

It would be funny if it were not so contemptible, these miserable efforts to fool the public by juggling with facts and figures, by representing our brave seamen and hardworking letter carriers and mail clerks as beneficiaries of Republican "graft."

The trick is worthy of a mountebank and perhaps not so surprising on that account. But it should bring utter discredit on all connected with it and make decent citizenship all the more determined to elect Taft and Sherman by a majority that will be an overwhelming rebuke to the trickster, who is seeking the presidency by means so petty and contemptible and, it may truly be said, idiotic.

The Wilson-Gorman tariff act, which Mr. Bryan helped to prepare and carry through congress and which President Cleveland denounced as "a creature of perjury and dishonor," closed American factories, lowered American wages, brought the people to hunger and want and caused a deficit in the treasury. Mr. Bryan is today urging further tariff legislation of the same character. If the people prefer paralysis to prosperity, he is their man.

Killed in Football Game.

Eagle Grove, Ia., Oct. 19.—Willard Smith, the elder of the two sons of Senator William C. Smith of this city, was killed in a football game at Clarion. His nose was broken and he bled to death. The game was a tie contest between the high school teams of Eagle Grove and Clarion.

TAFT EXPECTS TO BE ELECTED

Republican Candidate Appears Confident of Success.

CONFERS WITH ROOSEVELT

Judge Taft and the President Devote an Entire Day to Discussion of the Campaign—Chief Executive Gives the Candidate Some Suggestions on Minor Points, Which He Probably Will Adopt.

Washington, Oct. 19.—"I expect to be elected to the presidency," said Judge Taft, standing in the East room of the White House facing thirty or forty newspaper men who had congregated to meet him after he had spent the day as President Roosevelt's guest. The answer was in response to a question after a brief discussion of Mr. Taft's recent tour through the Southern states, of which he had spoken as a pleasing experience. With reference to that tour he would only say he thought it would open the way for improved Republican conditions in future campaigns. Judge Taft expressed a delicacy in revealing the issues which he and the president had discussed and when pressed for a statement as to the president's view of the situation he would only say that "the president is not a pessimist."

"Nor am I," he added.
While not especially arranged for that purpose, Judge Taft found in his stop here a convenient opportunity for consultation with the president, his special champion and chief adviser, and that both were pleased with the arrangement and made the most of it was made evident by the fact that they spent practically the entire day in the company of each other and for the most part with others excluded. While but little information concerning the tenor of their conversation was given out, it is known that they discussed, although in a purely informal way, most of the subjects that have come to the front since the campaign opened, and that the president offered some suggestions on minor points which Judge Taft will probably adopt.

It was evidently the intention of the president to take advantage of the occasion to emphasize to the country his interest, personal and political, in Mr. Taft, and he utilized all the time at his disposal to this end. Not only was Mr. Taft invited to breakfast, luncheon and dinner, but he was taken into the White House as if it were his own home, and in addition Mr. Roosevelt remained away from his own church in order to accompany Mr. Taft to his church. He also took him for a stroll after the service, and then crowned the day by asking in a number of political and personal friends to meet Mr. Taft and go over the situation.

WILL BE CLOSED OUT.

Business of Man Who Killed a Girl and Himself.

Omaha, Oct. 19.—The business of Sewell Sleuman, who Saturday night killed Miss Eva Hart and then took his own life at the girl's home, will be closed out at once. J. P. Comstock, Mr. Sleuman's office manager, stated that the note written him by Sleuman just before the shooting in which Sleuman gave orders that all trades be closed on the opening of the market, would be followed. He stated that there are about $25,000 on deposit in banks to the firm's credit, much of it representing customers' margins.

"It will probably require some court proceedings to close up the business," said Comstock, "but I can testify that every customer will receive every dollar due him. Mr. Sleuman's finances were in no way impaired and there will be plenty of cash to pay everybody and a large sum besides. The branches will all be closed at once. It cannot now be determined whether or not the business will be continued by some other persons."

Sleuman left one son and four daughters, besides a widow. Miss Hart's father is a traveling man. He arrived in Omaha and took charge of his daughter's remains.

It was learned that Sleuman recently revised his will, leaving his entire estate to his wife and children. In his note to Mr. Comstock, Sleuman admitted having planned the tragedy for a week.

King Consents to Marriage.

Rome, Oct. 19.—The public is greatly occupied with the matrimonial plans of the Duke of the Abruzzi and papers here announce that the marriage is absolutely certain to take place, the king having given his full consent to it. The Journal de Italia says that from today Miss Elkins can be considered in the same position as a royal princess.

Father and Son Drowned.

Detroit, Oct. 19.—Gottlieb Bruder and his little son Raymond were drowned in the Detroit river off Swain street when their skiff was swamped by swells from a passing steamer. Another son, Irwin, who swam to a lock only fifteen feet away, said that his father drowned trying to save Raymond, who could not swim.

FOUR CHILDREN PERISH.

Overheated Stove Sets Fire to a Dwelling House.

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 19.—An overheated stove set fire to a dwelling house at Summit, a mining town ten miles west of here, and four children lost their lives, while two other persons were probably fatally injured. The dead are:

Morris Delaney, fifteen years old; Robert Naezel, aged thirteen; Joseph Delaney, aged nine; Charles Delaney, aged twenty months.

The injured are Mrs. Luke Delaney, mother of the Delaney children, jumped from second story window, taken to Johnstown hospital in dying condition; Wilson Judge, aged ten years, leg broken, internally injured.

Mrs. Delaney was aroused by the heat from the fire. When she opened her bedroom door intending to rescue her children, who were asleep in another room, she was confronted by flames through which it was impossible to pass, leaving her no alternative but to jump to save her life. Besides being injured in her fall she was severely burned. The children were burned to ashes in their cots. The fire originated directly under the room in which they slept.

ON HIS FINAL TOUR.

William J. Bryan Leaves His Home Town.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 19.—William J. Bryan's final swing around the country, which will carry him to the Atlantic coast, was begun here when he left over the Burlington for St. Louis, where he will make an extended speech, then crossing the Mississippi to speak at East St. Louis. The Democratic candidate concluded his Nebraska and Colorado trip here Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock and devoted his six hours' stay in Fairview to making preparations for his long journey, which calls for an almost limitless number of speeches.

From East St. Louis, Mr. Bryan and party will travel in a special car for the balance of the trip, which will conclude at Lincoln on the night of Nov. 2. Accompanying him are Mrs. Bryan, Private Secretary Rose, Mayor F. W. Brown of Lincoln and four correspondents.

Mr. Bryan is scheduled to make four addresses in Chicago at night, the day being spent in the delivery of rear-end speeches from his car, which will be attached to a regular Chicago and Alton train.

Detroit Wins Exhibition Game.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—In an exhibition game Detroit of the American league won from the world's champion Chicago team of the National league by a score of 7 to 3. Detroit made 14 hits off Overall and Reulbach, who pitched for Chicago. Exhibitions of base running, throwing and hitting were given by the players. Cobb of Detroit won the hunt and run to first base in 3 3/4 seconds. Cobb also won the 100-yard dash in 10 1/2 seconds and circled the bases in 13 1/2 seconds. Overall won the Fungo hitting contest, 273 feet, and Hofman threw the ball 338 feet.

IMPROVEMENT IN FIRE SITUATION

REFUGEES IN DIRE DISTRESS

Necessity for Their Immediate Relief Hourly is Becoming Greater—Temperature Has Begun to Drop and Cooler Weather Will Cause Great Suffering Among the Homeless People in Michigan.

Alpena, Mich., Oct. 19.—Reports from flame-swept counties in this section of the state indicate improvement in the fire situation. But the necessity for immediate substantial relief for the refugees is hourly becoming greater. The winds have lessened materially, which greatly aided the efforts of the fighters. But the temperature has begun to drop and the colder weather will cause great suffering among the homeless, burned out refugees. Camped in the open fields or huddled together in the few buildings and shacks left in the little communities which have been fire-swept are hundreds of men, women and children who are in abject need of the absolute necessities of life. Many of them were driven from their homes in the night only partly clad. Not only the stores and houses have been destroyed, but the crops are also gone and the unfortunates must look to the outside for food as well as shelter. The relief problem is occupying the active attention of this city and all of the communities in this section of the state which escaped the fires. Three cars of food and two of building materials were shipped to the Presque Isle county sufferers from here.

Alpena is still surrounded by fires, but is not in danger unless the winds shift to the north. Up to date 44 dwelling houses and 65 barns have been reported destroyed in Alpena alone.

The smoke here was so thick that it was impossible to see across the street.

Stories of Suffering and Danger.

Out of the burned district there are now coming some of the stories of suffering and danger endured by those who survived the flames. Miss Cassie Howland had twenty-six little children in her school near Millersburg Friday afternoon. At the afternoon recess the air was smoky. Half an hour later the woods about the little schoolhouse were blazing fiercely. The children started for their homes, but were compelled to go to a neighboring house for shelter. Miss Howland says she could hardly face the wind during the walk of a quarter of a mile to her own home. After she reached it the heat grew so intense that the women were compelled to seek shelter in the cellar, while the men fought to save the house.

"Then," Miss Howland says, "refugees who had escaped with their lives in the plowed fields with their faces buried in the sand began to arrive. They kept coming all through the night all more or less burned in their flight through the woods. A boy by the name of Dust, one of the family of children which on Saturday was removed burned, brought in the charred remains of his little sister in his pocket handkerchief. His father and mother had already arrived at our house. Their grief was terrible. Then another of their children, a little girl, arrived carrying a baby. The child's dress was completely burned off and her little body was a mass of blisters."

CREMATED IN THEIR HOME

Mother and Her Seven Children Supposed to Have Perished.

Millersburg, Mich., Oct. 19.—Matthew Donakoski, a sixteen-year-old boy who came to town from Posen, said that he believed his sister, Mrs. Estella Wojteszek, and her seven children, who lived five miles south of Posen, were cremated in their home. Neither he nor his people could get to the farmhouse in which the family was living. Neighbors of the Wojteszek family who succeeded in making their escape say that the mother and her little ones must have perished.

Judge Parker is such a cheerful looking man that it is hard to believe that he is the deep dyed Jeremiah that his lamentations at the Saratoga convention would indicate.

The Battle for Health

How to keep well.
This is the problem Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have helped many thousands of people to solve by reason of their extraordinary blood forming and system building qualities. The only sure foundation for health is rich, red blood and a vigorous nervous system.

Both of these result from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. Even though you know of this great restorative as a cure for nervous exhaustion, prostration and paralysis, you may have overlooked it as a tonic to build up the system when it gets run down and you feel weak and miserable.

Mr. G. B. EXLINE, 29 Stewart St., Dayton, Ohio, states:—"I felt debilitated, rundown, nervous, tired, lacked energy and strength. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills built me right up, gave me restful sleep and good general health and energy. I gained seven pounds and consider them an excellent tonic."

Bryan and the Gold Democrats.

While here and there one may observe a Gold Democrat slyly trying to crawl under the Democratic tent, the great majority of those who marched out in 1896 rather than support the dishonest policies of Bryan show no disposition to return. They know that to recognize his leadership now after rejecting it then would be an act of self-suffocation. They know also that Mr. Bryan's feeling toward them has not changed in the estimation of a hair since he said in the course of a speech in Lansing, Mich., Oct. 16, 1896:

"While I do not want to prevent Gold Democrats from leaving the party, we do want them to take their baggage with them and not expect to come back. We want them to understand that it is going to be easier for them to stay in the party than to come back after they have stained their hands in the sins of plutocracy."

If any Democrat who in 1896 or 1900 stained his hands in the sins of plutocracy to the extent of voting against Bryanism and a dishonest dollar imagines that he will be welcomed back into the party fold this year with joyous acclamations and a feast of veal, he is deceiving himself most grievously. If he returns at all, it must be as a penitent ready to serve as a hewer of wood and a drawer of water. It is he that must recant and apologize. Mr. Bryan is unchanged. He has never forgiven the Democrats who deserted the black flag of repudiation twelve years ago, and if his own words mean anything he never will forgive them.

The Gold Democrats who left their party did so rather than compromise with conscience. Mr. Bryan was indignant that they should allow any such consideration to draw them away. They have remained away because they could return only by compromising with their self-respect, and he is amazed that a little thing like that should keep them beyond the party lines.

The revolt of the sound money Democrats against Bryanism and dishonor in 1896 was one of the most wholesome events that ever happened in our political life. It not only affirmed the principle that party ties are not binding in controversies involving the national honor, but it set an example of high minded, independent citizenship which has elevated and strengthened our standards of political morals. The great body of patriotic citizens who joined in that uprising have never expressed regret for the course they took. On the contrary, they are proud of it, and they stand this year exactly where they did in 1896 and 1900. If Mr. Bryan dreams that they will grovel at his feet and beg for readmission to the party he betrayed, he is merely mistaken again, as usual.

Worse Than Lies.

The more Bryan's speeches and the Democratic platform are examined the more they appear in their real light as attempts to impose on the public by statements of fact that are worse than lies because deliberately distorted to convey an utterly false impression. For instance, the Denver platform says that "during the past year 23,784 officeholders were added, costing $16,156,000."

Of course the impression intended to be conveyed is that the Republican national administration had during the past year squandered over $16,000,000 of the public money in providing soft jobs for 23,784 party favorites who could be found holding down upholstered chairs while they waited for their salaries to be handed to them on a silver tray. Of course the Connors-Murphy delegates were shocked at they thought of the sinecures that were escaping them and more or less silently registered vows that they would be on some of those jobs by next summer.

What are the facts?

The increase in the number of offices was less than 16,000, and of the "officeholders" 6,000 were seamen in the navy, at $36.60 per month, and 7,990 were postal employees, at salaries ranging from $100 downward. Salaries and wages for the new "offices" amounted to $11,716,690 instead of $16,156,000.

The gallant seamen of our fleet and postal employees working for $100 a month and less are the "officeholders" held up in the Denver platform and by Bryan in speech after speech in illustration of Republican extravagance and waste!

It would be funny if it were not so contemptible, these miserable efforts to fool the public by juggling with facts and figures, by representing our brave seamen and hardworking letter carriers and mail clerks as beneficiaries of Republican "graft."

The trick is worthy of a mountebank and perhaps not so surprising on that account. But it should bring utter discredit on all connected with it and make decent citizenship all the more determined to elect Taft and Sherman by a majority that will be an overwhelming rebuke to the trickster who is seeking the presidency by means so petty and contemptible and, it may truly be said, idiotic.

The Wilson-Gorman tariff act, which Mr. Bryan helped to prepare and carry through congress and which President Cleveland denounced as "a creature of perjury and dishonor," closed American factories, lowered American wages, brought the people to hunger and want and caused a deficit in the treasury. Mr. Bryan is today urging further tariff legislation of the same character. If the people prefer paralysis to prosperity, he is their man.

Killed in Football Game.

Eagle Grove, Ia., Oct. 19.—Willard Smith, the elder of the two sons of Senator William C. Smith of this city, was killed in a football game at Clarion. His nose was broken and he bled to death. The game was a tie contest between the high school teams of Eagle Grove and Clarion.

TAFT EXPECTS TO BE ELECTED

Republican Candidate Appears Confident of Success.

CONFERS WITH ROOSEVELT

Judge Taft and the President Devote an Entire Day to Discussion of the Campaign—Chief Executive Gives the Candidate Some Suggestions on Minor Points, Which He Probably Will Adopt.

Washington, Oct. 19.—"I expect to be elected to the presidency," said Judge Taft, standing in the East room of the White House facing thirty or forty newspaper men who had congregated to meet him after he had spent the day as President Roosevelt's guest. The answer was in response to a question after a brief discussion of Mr. Taft's recent tour through the Southern states, of which he had spoken as a pleasing experience. With reference to that tour he would only say he thought it would open the way for improved Republican conditions in future campaigns. Judge Taft expressed a delicacy in revealing the issues which he and the president had discussed and when pressed for a statement as to the president's view of the situation he would only say that "the president is not a pessimist."

"Nor am I," he added. While not especially arranged for that purpose, Judge Taft found in his stop here a convenient opportunity for consultation with the president, his especial champion and chief adviser, and that both were pleased with the arrangement and made the most of it was made evident by the fact that they spent practically the entire day in the company of each other and for the most part with others excluded. While but little information concerning the tenor of their conversation was given out, it is known that they discussed, although in a purely informal way, most of the subjects that have come to the front since the campaign opened, and that the president offered some suggestions on minor points which Judge Taft will probably adopt.

It was evidently the intention of the president to take advantage of the occasion to emphasize to the country his interest, personal and political, in Mr. Taft, and he utilized all the time at his disposal to this end. Not only was Mr. Taft invited to breakfast, luncheon and dinner, but he was taken into the White House as if it were his own home, and in addition Mr. Roosevelt remained away from his own church in order to accompany Mr. Taft to his church. He also took him for a stroll after the service, and then crowned the day by asking in a number of political and personal friends to meet Mr. Taft and go over the situation.

WILL BE CLOSED OUT.

Business of Man Who Killed a Girl and Himself.

Omaha, Oct. 19.—The business of Sewell Sleuman, who Saturday night killed Miss Eva Hart and then took his own life at the girl's home, will be closed out at once. J. P. Comstock, Mr. Sleuman's office manager, stated that the note written him by Sleuman just before the shooting in which Sleuman gave orders that all trades be closed on the opening of the market, would be followed. He stated that there are about $25,000 on deposit in banks to the firm's credit, much of it representing customers' margins.

"It will probably require some court proceedings to close up the business," said Comstock, "but I can testify that every customer will receive every dollar due him. Mr. Sleuman's finances were in no way impaired and there will be plenty of cash to pay everybody and a large sum besides. The branches will all be closed at once. It cannot now be determined whether or not the business will be continued by some other persons."

Sleuman left one son and four daughters, besides a widow. Miss Hart's father is a traveling man. He arrived in Omaha and took charge of his daughter's remains. It was learned that Sleuman recently revised his will, leaving his entire estate to his wife and children. In his note to Mr. Comstock, Sleuman admitted having planned the tragedy for a week.

King Consents to Marriage.

Rome, Oct. 19.—The public is greatly occupied with the matrimonial plans of the Duke of the Abruzzi and papers here announce that the marriage is absolutely certain to take place, the king having given his full consent to it. The Journal de Italia says that from today Miss Elkins can be considered in the same position as a royal princess.

Father and Son Drowned.

Detroit, Oct. 19.—Gottlieb Bruder and his little son Raymond were drowned in the Detroit river off Swain street when their skiff was swamped by swells from a passing steamer. Another son, Irwin, who swam to a lock only fifteen feet away, said that his father drowned trying to save Raymond, who could not swim.

FOUR CHILDREN PERISH.

Overheated Stove Sets Fire to a Dwelling House.

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 19.—An overheated stove set fire to a dwelling house at Summit, a mining town ten miles west of here, and four children lost their lives, while two other persons were probably fatally injured. The dead are:

Morris Delaney, fifteen years old; Robert Nagel, aged thirteen; Joseph Delaney, aged nine; Charles Delaney, aged twenty months.

The injured are Mrs. Luke Delaney, mother of the Delaney children, jumped from second story window, taken to Johnstown hospital in dying condition; Wilson Judge, aged ten years, leg broken, internally injured.

Mrs. Delaney was aroused by the heat from the fire. When she opened her bedroom door intending to rescue her children, who were asleep in another room, she was confronted by flames through which it was impossible to pass, leaving her no alternative but to jump to save her life. Besides being injured in her fall she was severely burned. The children were burned to ashes in their cots. The fire originated directly under the room in which they slept.

The smoke here was so thick that it was impossible to see across the street.

Stories of Suffering and Danger.

Out of the burned district there are now coming some of the stories of suffering and danger endured by those who survived the flames. Miss Cassie Howland had twenty-six little children in her school near Millersburg Friday afternoon. At the afternoon recess the air was smoky. Half an hour later the woods about the little schoolhouse were blazing fiercely. The children started for their homes, but were compelled to go to a neighboring house for shelter. Miss Howland says she could hardly face the wind during the walk of a quarter of a mile to her own home. After she reached it the heat grew so intense that the women were compelled to seek shelter in the cellar, while the men fought to save the house.

"Then," Miss Howland says, "refugees who had escaped with their lives in the plowed fields with their faces buried in the sand began to arrive. They kept coming all through the night all more or less burned in their flight through the woods. A boy by the name of Dust, one of the family of children which on Saturday was removed burned, brought in the charred remains of his little sister in his pocket handkerchief. His father and mother had already arrived at our house. Their grief was terrible. Then another of their children, a little girl, arrived carrying a baby. The child's dress was completely burned off and her little body was a mass of blisters."

CREMATED IN THEIR HOME

Mother and Her Seven Children Supposed to Have Perished.

Millersburg, Mich., Oct. 19.—Matthew Donakoski, a sixteen-year-old boy who came to town from Posen, said that he believed his sister, Mrs. Estella Wojtasek, and her seven children, who lived five miles south of Posen, were cremated in their home. Neither he nor his people could get to the farmhouse in which the family was living. Neighbors of the Wojtasek family who succeeded in making their escape say that the mother and her little ones must have perished.

Judge Parker is such a cheerful looking man that it is hard to believe that he is the deep dyed Jeremiah that his lamentations at the Saratoga convention would indicate.

The Battle for Health

How to keep well. This is the problem Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have helped many thousands of people to solve by reason of their extraordinary blood forming and system building qualities. The only sure foundation for health is rich, red blood and a vigorous nervous system.

Both of these result from the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills. Even though you know of this great restorative as a cure for nervous exhaustion, prostration and paralysis, you may have overlooked it as a tonic to build up the system when it gets run down and you feel weak and miserable.

Mr. G. B. EXLINE, 29 Stewart St., Dayton, Ohio, states:—"I felt debilitated, rundown, nervous, tired, lacked energy and strength. Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills built me right up, gave me restful sleep and good general health and energy. I gained seven pounds and consider them an excellent tonic."
